Prayer for the Jubilee Year Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen Franciscus	PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO NEED HEALING IN OUR FAMILY OF PARISHES... Margaret Convey, Maureen Dixon, Doreen Bailes, Norman King
	GETTING YOUR CHILD BAPTISED If you or a family member is looking to have your child baptised, please collect the leaflet ‘Getting your child baptised’ from the back of church. This policy of how we access the Sacraments of Initiation is applicable across the Pontop Partnership. Please read the leaflet carefully before returning the attached application in person to your parish priest at the end of Mass.
	A GENTLE REMINDER... Please remember to switch off your mobile phone (or put it on silent) when coming into Church. We show reverence to Jesus present in the Tabernacle. Please talk to God before Mass and one another afterwards. St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

LISTEN TO THE WORD
14TH DECEMBER 2025 - GAUDATE SUNDAY
Isaiah 35: 1-6, 10 | Psalm 145 | James 5: 7-10 | Matthew 11: 2-11

Advent is a time for watching. To everything there comes a time; in springtime the crocus and the daffodil tell us that summer is on its way, in autumn the falling leaves and the migrating birds tells us that winter is near. Advent is about watching for the signs of the times; we watch in hope, in anticipation and in joy. Today is Gaudate Sunday. This is the day when we take a break from the long preparation for the coming of the Christ Child and rejoice that He is so near.

When you live in a country which is nearly all desert you watch for the signs of nature. Crops will only grow if the seed is sown at the right time and if rain and sun will follow the sowing and bring forth a harvest. The people of Israel had waited a long time. They had the vision of Isaiah, which we share today, to sustain them through the long dry spell of history when nothing would grow and their nation suffered from powerful enemies. Isaiah's words are full of the joy of dreams being fulfilled; the coming of Christ was that fulfilment, but how would the people know that He is the Messiah?

John the Baptist was imprisoned because he spoke out against the actions of King Herod. During his time in prison, he must have felt depressed and disillusioned. He loved the freedom of the open air, the wide clear skies of the desert places. He must have felt like a bird caught in a cage, deprived of his freedom. In his despair he asks for a sign that the Messiah was indeed walking the land. When he is told that the blind see, the deaf hear and the lame walk again he recognised the words of Isaiah in the work of Jesus, the one he baptised in the Jordan and John is then content to wait in joy for the coming of the Kingdom.

James asks us to be patient; Christ will be along soon, don't despair but be prepared. Patience is a gift that is sorely lacking in our world of today; we want everything and we want it now. We need to find a way to enjoy the waiting; to be good to ourselves and our neighbours just for today is not sufficient. We must find a way to make goodness a way of life.

Prayer is meant to be simple. We do not need to fill our prayers with words. It would be good to begin each day with a simple sentence so that we can walk, in those words, with the Lord all day.

Sunday	Lord, Strengthen my hands so I may hold those who need me today.
Monday	Lord, Open my eyes so that I may see those who are in need.
Tuesday	Lord, Open the door to my heart so that I may share my love with others.
Wednesday	Lord, Open my ears so that I may hear the cries of the poor.
Thursday	Lord, Help me to pray today
Friday	Lord, Give me patience for those who need me to help them today.
Saturday	Lord, help me to see the good I have done this week.
Amen.

- David Frank.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT (A)

THE ORDER OF MASS CAN BE FOUND ON PAGE 4 OF THE HYMN BOOK

First Reading

Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad;
the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus;
it shall blossom abundantly
and rejoice with joy and singing.
The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,
the majesty of Carmel and Sharon.
They shall see the glory of the LORD,
the majesty of our God.

Strengthen the weak hands,
and make firm the feeble knees.
Say to those who have an anxious heart,
‘Be strong; fear not!’
Behold, your God will come with vengeance,
with the recompense of God.
He will come and save you.’

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped;
then shall the lame man leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the mute sing for joy.

And the ransomed of the LORD shall return
and come to Sion with singing;
everlasting joy shall be upon their heads;
they shall obtain gladness and joy,
and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 146(145):6c-7. 8-9a. 9b-10. R̃ Mt 5:3

Response: Come, Lord, and save us.

It is the LORD who preserves fidelity for ever,
who does justice to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the LORD who sets prisoners free.

The LORD who opens the eyes of the blind,
the LORD who raises up those who are bowed down.
It is the LORD who loves the just,
the LORD who protects the stranger.

The LORD upholds the orphan and the widow,
but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The LORD will reign for ever,
your God, O Sion, from age to age.

Second Reading

James 5:7-10

Be patient, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. Do not grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. As an example of suffering and patience, brothers and sisters, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he has sent me to proclaim good news to the poor.

Gospel

Matthew 11:2-11

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
A reading from the Holy Gospel according Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time: When John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?’

And Jesus answered them, ‘Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. And blessed is the one who is not offended by me.’

As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: ‘What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings’ houses.

‘What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written,

“Behold, I send my messenger before your face,
who will prepare your way before you.”

‘Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.’

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
