Prayer for the Jubilee Year Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom. May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally. May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven. May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth. To you our God, eternally blessed, be glory and praise for ever. Amen Franciscus

LISTEN TO THE WORD 7TH DECEMBER 2025 - SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT Isaiah 11: 1-10 Psalm 71 Romans 15: 4-9 Matthew 3: 1-12 Advent is a time of wonder. We are preparing for the birth of the Son of God. Is there anything more wondrous than this event? Love is born again for us on Christmas morning as the promise of our Creator God is fulfilled in the shape of a small innocent babe. One figure dominates chapter three of the Gospel of Matthew. He is the last of the prophets: John the Baptist. In the passage from the Old Testament Isaiah describes a heroic figure; one with all the qualities we see in an outstanding human being; someone to measure ourselves against. A man on who rests a spirit of wisdom, understanding, counsel, might, Knowledge and fear of the Lord. This man will “stand as a signal for the peoples”. Is this John the Baptist? When Matthew tells the story of John he paints a very vivid picture of a very independent man: someone who does not compromise, who speaks his truth forcefully and is not frightened of authority. John calls to us across the centuries to repentance. He reminds us that we need to be cleansed of our sins as we prepare to receive into our world the Christ child. He speaks of someone who is coming, someone who is far greater than he is, one who will bringing justice to the world. Paul writes to us from a world which has seen John and experienced Christ. He speaks to us about hope, how we should never give up and how that hope will lead to tolerance of each other. We are approaching the gift of Christmas. During these days we should be preparing to receive the Christ child into our hearts. Let us pray that our hearts are ready and open to receive Him Come Lord Jesus Come and be born in our hearts. A Prayer based on Isaiah 2:5 “Come, let us walk in the light of the Lord” Lord, As Advent begins so too does the countdown to Christmas. Give us patience Lord to treat these days as blessings, days when we can prepare for your presence. It is good to wait; it gives us time to prepare. Let us live these days with joy, with hope, with faith, and in love. Give us your grace to stay awake until your glory returns. Amen. David Frank.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT (A)

THE ORDER OF MASS CAN BE FOUND ON PAGE 4 OF THE HYMN BOOK

First Reading

Isaiah 11:1-10

On that day:

There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from his roots shall bear fruit. And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD. And his delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide disputes by what his ears hear, but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt of his loins.

The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze; their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den. They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

In that day the root of Jesse, who shall stand as a signal for the peoples — of him shall the nations enquire, and his resting-place shall be glorious.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 72(71):1-2, 7-8, 12-13, 17. R̃ cf. 7

Response: In his days shall justice flourish, and great peace for ever.

O God, give your judgement to the king, to a king's son your justice, that he may judge your people in justice, and your poor in right judgement.

In his days justice shall flourish, and great peace till the moon is no more. He shall rule from sea to sea, from the River to the bounds of the earth.

For he shall rescue the needy when they cry, the poor who have no one to help. He will have pity on the weak and the needy, and save the lives of the needy.

May his name endure for ever, his name continue like the sun. Every tribe shall be blest in him, all nations shall call him blessed.

Second Reading

Romans 15:4-9

Brothers and sisters: Whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, 'Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name.'

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight; all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Gospel

Matthew 3:1-12

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
A reading from the Holy Gospel according Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.' For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah when he said, 'The voice of one crying in the wilderness: "Prepare the way of the Lord; make his paths straight."'

Now John wore a garment of camel's hair and a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judea and all the region about the Jordan were going out to him, and they were baptised by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, 'You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruit in keeping with repentance. And do not presume to say to yourselves, "We have Abraham as our father", for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

'I baptise you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION

- ✠ To you, what is the most attractive feature of the human Jesus?
- ✠ In what way can I be more generous to prepare for Christmas, especially to those who are not my natural friends?
- ✠ Is my scale of values compatible with the Kingship of God? How far do they coincide?
