PRAYER BEFORE MASS
Almighty and ever-living God, I approach the sacrament of Your only-begotten Son Our Lord Jesus Christ, I come sick to the doctor of life, unclean to the fountain of mercy, blind to the radiance of eternal light, and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Lord, in your great generosity, heal my sickness, wash away my defilement, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness. May I receive the bread of angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords, with humble reverence, with the purity and faith, the repentance and love, and the determined purpose that will help to bring me to salvation. May I receive the sacrament of the Lord’s Body and Blood, and its reality and power. Kind God, may I receive the Body of Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, born from the womb of the Virgin Mary, and so be received into His mystical body and numbered among His members. Loving Father, as on my earthly pilgrimage I now receive Your beloved Son under the veil of a sacrament, may I one day see him face to face in glory, who lives and reigns with You for ever. Amen.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO NEED HEALING IN OUR FAMILY OF PARISHES...
Margaret Convey, Maureen Dixon, Doreen Bailes, Norman King GETTING YOUR CHILD BAPTISED
If you or a family member is looking to have your child baptised, please collect the leaflet ‘Getting your child baptised’ from the back of church. This policy of how we access the Sacraments of Initiation is applicable across the Pontop Partnership. Please read the leaflet carefully before returning the attached application in person to your parish priest at the end of Mass.
A GENTLE REMINDER...
Please remember to switch off your mobile phone (or put it on silent) when coming into Church. We show reverence to Jesus present in the Tabernacle. Please talk to God before Mass and one another afterwards.
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

LISTEN TO THE WORD

11TH JANUARY 2026 - BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Isaiah 42: 1-4, 6-7 | Psalm 29 | Acts 10: 34-38 | Matthew 3: 13-17

Everything must start somewhere, every enterprise, every journey, every action has a starting point, a place where tomorrow becomes today, and a unique set of events begins to unfold. We are all part of the story that begins today; after perhaps thirty years of obscurity, a carpenter from a small village in Galilee steps into our lives and everything changes. First, John came announcing a baptism of repentance, a preparation for the emergence of the Lamb of God, and he begins a chain of events which culminated in the ministry of Our Saviour and Lord, Jesus Christ and the world was changed forever.

The Baptism of Our Lord speaks to us of our own baptism but, on another dimension, of who we are meant to be. The basic symbols are there; water, to cleanse and refresh us, the Holy Spirit, to be with us throughout our life journey and the Father who acknowledges us as His own children. The inspiring words of Isaiah paint a picture of a role model, one to whom we can aspire to be. Filled with the spirit, he does not call out for attention to himself but stands as an example of a true leader. He speaks without fear, defends the weak, upholds justice, yet he is humble, seeking only to free people from the darkness of this world and to become bearers of light.

Peter is a great example to us of a man who lived the first part of his life as a working man, a fisherman, but, due to a meeting with Jesus, one who leaves his old life for an uncertain future. He never quotes scripture, he is full of doubt, always striving to make sense of this strange force, which compels him to follow Jesus, even though he is struggling to understand what He is about. A man, who, after the resurrection, becomes the leader of the church takes him from his lowly background to a place where he speaks to and teaches Cornelius, a representative of Roman power and influence, about the true King of Kings, Jesus Christ.

The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated almost every week in at least one of our churches. It is a public act, open to all. Those of us born into the church cannot remember our own Baptism. If you have the opportunity to be present at a Baptism, just sit quietly and watch, in wonder, at the ceremony unfolding before your eyes. Be present as the Holy Spirit descends on another Christian soul.

David Frank.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD (A)

THE ORDER OF MASS CAN BE FOUND ON PAGE 4 OF THE HYMN BOOK

First Reading

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:
Behold my servant, whom I uphold,
my chosen, in whom my soul delights;
I have put my Spirit upon him;
he will bring forth justice to the nations.
He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice,
or make it heard in the street;
a bruised reed he will not break,
and a faintly burning wick he will not quench;
he will faithfully bring forth justice.
He will not grow faint or be discouraged
till he has established justice in the earth;
and the coastlands wait for his law.

‘I am the LORD; I have called you in righteousness;
I will take you by the hand and keep you;
I will give you as a covenant for the people,
a light for the nations,
to open the eyes that are blind,
to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon,
from the prison those who sit in darkness.’

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 29(28):1-2. 3ac-4. 3b, 9b-10. R11b

Response: The LORD will bless his people with peace.

Ascribe to the LORD, you heavenly powers,
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
Ascribe to the LORD the glory of his name;
bow down before the LORD, majestic in holiness.

The voice of the LORD upon the waters,
the LORD on the immensity of waters;
the voice of the LORD full of power;
the voice of the LORD full of splendour.

The God of glory thunders;
in his temple they all cry, ‘Glory!’
The LORD sits enthroned above the flood;
the LORD sits as king for ever.

Second Reading

Acts 10:34-38

In those days: Peter opened his mouth and said: ‘Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all — you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.’

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

The heavens were opened and the voice of the Father thundered:
‘This is my beloved Son; listen to him’.

Gospel

Matthew 3:13-17

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
A reading from the Holy Gospel according Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time: Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptised by him. John would have prevented him, saying, ‘I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?’ But Jesus answered him, ‘Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness.’ Then he consented. And when Jesus was baptised, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, ‘This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.’

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION

- ✠ How can I tell what God wants from me?
- ✠ Do I put up barriers, exclude anyone from Christ’s love?
- ✠ A quick review: what difference has baptism made to my life?
