PRAYER BEFORE MASS

Almighty and ever-living God,
I approach the sacrament of Your only-begotten Son
Our Lord Jesus Christ, I come sick to the doctor of life, unclean to the fountain of mercy,
blind to the radiance of eternal light,
and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth.

Lord, in your great generosity, heal my sickness,
wash away my defilement,
enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty,
and clothe my nakedness.

May I receive the bread of angels,
the King of kings and Lord of lords, with humble reverence,
with the purity and faith, the repentance and love,
and the determined purpose

that will help to bring me to salvation.

May I receive the sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood,
and its reality and power.

Kind God, may I receive the Body of Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, born from the womb of the Virgin Mary,
and so be received into His mystical body
and numbered among His members.

Loving Father, as on my earthly pilgrimage
I now receive Your beloved Son under the veil of a sacrament, may I one day see him face to face in glory,
who lives and reigns with You for ever.
Amen.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO NEED HEALING IN OUR FAMILY OF PARISHES...

Margaret Convey, Maureen Dixon, Doreen Bailes, Norman King, Margaret Pendleton

GETTING YOUR CHILD BAPTISED

If you or a family member is looking to have your child baptised, please collect the leaflet 'Getting your child baptised' from the back of church. This policy of how we access the Sacraments of Initiation is applicable across the Pontop Partnership. Please read the leaflet carefully before returning the attached application in person to your parish priest at the end of Mass.

A GENTLE REMINDER...

Please remember to switch off your mobile phone (or put it on silent) when coming into Church.

We show reverence to Jesus present in the Tabernacle.

Please talk to God before Mass and one another afterwards.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

LISTEN TO THE WORD

25TH JANUARY 2026 - 3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Isaiah 9: 1-4 | Psalm 27 | 1 Corinthians 1: 10-13, 17 | Matthew 4: 12-23

In his Apostolic Exhortation "Evangelii Gaudium" - "The Joy of the Gospel" - the late Pope Francis urges us to examine the scriptures in a prayerful way and so come to know the joys they contain. In effect he is echoing the words of today's first reading from Isaiah for the Gospels are a joy and a light for the people of God. Isaiah speaks to us of the effect on the people of the great light which will fill their world, a light which will banish the darkness and the deep shadows which cover their world. The light, that is Christ, will give us cause for gladness, joy and rejoicing for the great weight of sin that we carry will be lifted from our shoulders.

Corinth was a place of contrast; it was filled with many different classes of people and the house churches that Paul established had great difficulty working together. Paul calls for unity in today's passage from Corinthians. In the early church there were a number of missionaries who spoke about Jesus from their own perspective and this led to a sense of favouritism for one view against another. The early church depended on the testimony of those who had known Jesus or who had been taught by the Apostles. Paul, Peter and Apollos were good men, but their message came from their background and their understanding of the ministry of Jesus. Paul urges us to focus on Christ and follow his example; we are fortunate that we have the Gospels to light our way and the benefit of two thousand years of Christian writers and theologians; the people of the early church walked in darkness compared to our understanding today.

When Jesus began his ministry, he found that he could not work from his home in Nazareth and so he moved to Capernaum and, in this way fulfilled the words of Isaiah. It was at this time that he called the local fishermen; Peter, Andrew, James and John to be his apostles. John The Baptist had been arrested, Jesus had to leave his family home, fishermen were called from their work; each, in their own way, were uprooted and set new tasks. To follow Jesus, we too may be uprooted and given new work to do; it is all in God's hands and to be done with great joy.

David Frank.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

THIRD SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (A)

THE ORDER OF MASS CAN BE FOUND ON PAGE 4 OF THE HYMN BOOK

First Reading

Isaiah 9:1b-4

In the former time the Lord brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he has made glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shone. You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as they are glad when they divide the spoil. For the yoke of his burden, and the staff for his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 27(26):1. 4. 13-14. R1a

Response: The LORD is my light and my salvation.

The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom shall I fear?

The LORD is the stronghold of my life;
whom should I dread?

There is one thing I ask of the LORD,
only this do I seek:
to live in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
to gaze on the beauty of the LORD,
to enquire at his temple.

I believe I shall see the LORD's goodness
in the land of the living.
Wait for the LORD; be strong;

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgement. For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarrelling among you, my brothers and sisters. What I mean is that each one of you says, 'I follow Paul', or 'I follow Apollos', or 'I follow Cephas', or 'I follow Christ.' Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptised in the name of Paul? For Christ did not send me to baptise but to preach the gospel, and not with words of eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

Jesus proclaimed the gospel of the kingdom and healed every affliction among the people.

Gospel

Matthew 4:12-23

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee. And leaving Nazareth he went and lived in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: 'The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles — the people dwelling in darkness have seen a great light, and for those dwelling in the region and shadow of death, on them a light has dawned.' From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.'

While walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. And he said to them, 'Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.' Immediately they left their nets and followed him. And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION

- ☒ What is the most important element that would restore our country to God's service?
- ☒ Are there any echoes of disunity in your community?
- ☒ Do I ever follow Jesus' call immediately and unconditionally?
