PRAYER BEFORE MASS
Almighty and ever-living God, I approach the sacrament of Your only-begotten Son Our Lord Jesus Christ, I come sick to the doctor of life, unclean to the fountain of mercy, blind to the radiance of eternal light, and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. Lord, in your great generosity, heal my sickness, wash away my defilement, enlighten my blindness, enrich my poverty, and clothe my nakedness. May I receive the bread of angels, the King of kings and Lord of lords, with humble reverence, with the purity and faith, the repentance and love, and the determined purpose that will help to bring me to salvation. May I receive the sacrament of the Lord’s Body and Blood, and its reality and power. Kind God, may I receive the Body of Your only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, born from the womb of the Virgin Mary, and so be received into His mystical body and numbered among His members. Loving Father, as on my earthly pilgrimage I now receive Your beloved Son under the veil of a sacrament, may I one day see him face to face in glory, who lives and reigns with You for ever. Amen.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO NEED HEALING IN OUR FAMILY OF PARISHES...
Margaret Convey, Maureen Dixon, Doreen Bailes, Margaret Pendleton, Gerry Cassidy
GETTING YOUR CHILD BAPTISED
If you or a family member is looking to have your child baptised, please collect the leaflet ‘Getting your child baptised’ from the back of church. This policy of how we access the Sacraments of Initiation is applicable across the Pontop Partnership. Please read the leaflet carefully before returning the attached application in person to your parish priest at the end of Mass.
A GENTLE REMINDER...
Please remember to switch off your mobile phone (or put it on silent) when coming into Church. We show reverence to Jesus present in the Tabernacle. Please talk to God before Mass and one another afterwards.
St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

LISTEN TO THE WORD

22ND FEBRUARY 2026 - FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Genesis 2: 7-9, 3:1-7 | Psalm 50 | Romans 5: 12-19 | Matthew 4: 1-11

There is a line from “The Lord’s Prayer” which is linked to today’s readings. We pray: “Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil”. We probably learned the “Our Father” as children and, as with other prayers we heard at that time, it stays with us but do we really pray the words or just recite them? Lent has begun, it is a time to review our spiritual and prayer life and learn, once again, the lessons we have experienced throughout our lives. As children we received them, as adults we now must put them into practice.

The Genesis reading reminds me that we received this passage in a simple way as children and now, perhaps, we listen with that same simplicity as adults. But the message is far from simple, it established from the beginning our relationship with Our Heavenly Father. We are given the gift of free will and how we use that gift is down to us. We can do wrong or right, we can be disobedient or righteous, the choice is ours. Eve and Adam choose to disobey God’s warning of the fruit of the tree and so destroyed the harmony of Eden and brought sin into the world and, with it our deadliest enemy, death.

Paul usually wrote to those communities he had visited with words of encouragement or sometimes admonishment for error but his epistle to the Romans was to a people he had never visited and so the tone is somewhat different from normal. It is a teaching letter, a preparation for what is to come, and if you read this passage closely you will see a link between the first two readings. Paul sees the emergence of Jesus Christ as the blessing which will save mankind from sin as, through the cross, Jesus took our sins on himself and so we are forgiven. Jesus changes us from sinners into the righteous.

The Temptations passage from Matthew is filled with the Holy Spirit and is a gift to us when we are in danger of sin. It speaks to us of the Word; we cannot change stones to bread, but we can be guided by His word. We must not challenge the Lord by asking the impossible, but we can accept His gift of the possible. We may look to the world to provide for all our needs and be tempted by the false promises of prosperity and fame, but there is only one God and He is the only one who can fully satisfy us. Turn to Him.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT (A)

THE ORDER OF MASS CAN BE FOUND ON PAGE 4 OF THE HYMN BOOK

First Reading

Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7

The LORD God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature. And the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and there he put the man whom he had formed. And out of the ground the LORD God made to spring up every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life was in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other beast of the field that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, ‘Did God actually say, “You shall not eat of any tree in the garden?”’ And the woman said to the serpent, ‘We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden, but God said, “You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.” ’ But the serpent said to the woman, ‘You will not surely die. For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.’ So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate, and she also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loincloths.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 51(50):3-4. 5-6b. 12-13. 14, 17. R̃ cf. 3a

Response: Have mercy on us, O Lord, for we have sinned.

Have mercy on me, O God,
according to your merciful love;
according to your great compassion,
blot out my transgressions.
Wash me completely from my iniquity,
and cleanse me from my sin.

My transgressions, truly I know them;
my sin is always before me.
Against you, you alone, have I sinned;
what is evil in your sight I have done.

Create a pure heart for me, O God;
renew a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence;
take not your holy spirit from me.

Restore in me the joy of your salvation;
sustain in me a willing spirit.
O Lord, open my lips

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Brothers and Sisters: Just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all sinned — for sin indeed was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not counted where there is no law. Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sinning was not like the transgression of Adam, who was a type of the one who was to come.

But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man’s trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of that one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for many. And the free gift is not like the result of that one man’s sin. For the judgement following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brought justification. For if, because of one man’s trespass, death reigned through that one man; much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ. Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man’s disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man’s obedience the many will be made righteous.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Gospel

Matthew 4:1-11

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew

Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time: Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry.

And the tempter came and said to him, ‘If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.’ But he answered, ‘It is written, “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.” ’

Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the Temple and said to him, ‘If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, “He will command his angels concerning you”, and “On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.” ’ Jesus said to him, ‘Again it is written, “You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.” ’

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to him, ‘All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.’ Then Jesus said to him, ‘Be gone, Satan! For it is written, “You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve.” ’ Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and were ministering to him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

QUESTIONS FOR PERSONAL REFLECTION

- ✠ Does the story of the First Reading ring true? Fit it to your own experience
- ✠ Can those who have never heard of Christ enter into his salvation?
- ✠ What is the chief fault that tempts the Church away from the way of Christ today?
